

Notice to State Authorities (Non-Commercial Ecclesiastical Vehicle)

To Whom It May Concern,

This document serves as official Notice from the Clements Private Trust, a fully Ecclesiastical Private Trust operating under divine spiritual jurisdiction and not subject to corporate, statutory, or maritime law.

Please be advised that the following described vehicle is ecclesiastically conveyed under the Clements Private Trust and is hereby declared as private trust property under spiritual governance:

Year: 1997
Make: Honda
Model: Accord Wagon
VIN: 1HGCD1852VA005847
Plate: TRUST-01

This vehicle is not engaged in commerce, is not for hire, and is used solely for trust-related activities including the care, support, and transportation of trust members.

The operator or any passengers traveling within or with this conveyance are doing so under the private spiritual jurisdiction of the Clements Private Trust. They are not commercial drivers, and this notice acts as rebuttal and non-consent to any claim of jurisdiction or attempt to compel under any foreign legal system.

We assert full divine rights of travel, property, and association under natural law and ecclesiastical dominion granted by the Creator of the Universe. As such, this vehicle is not subject to commercial regulation, licensing, titling, or insurance requirements under your corporate statutes.

Any attempt to hinder, detain, or violate the rights of members of the Clements Private Trust while in spiritual travel will be deemed a trespass against sacred ecclesiastical jurisdiction and will be held in direct violation of divine law.

This document is sealed under private ecclesiastical authority and does not require third-party verification or notary. This spiritual conveyance and all associated trust property are spiritually bonded and protected.
